- Form for students with Special Educational Needs \(SEN\) - if applicable

If you have not yet completed your degree or have already finished but do not have the final certificate, you must present a certificate proving the course units already carried out, their classification and corresponding ECTS, as well as your current average classification. Apart from that, applicants must submit a declaration of honour:

- Declaration of Honour – applicants without a Degree completed
- Declaration of Honour – applicants with a Degree, but without a Diploma

Documents issued in other countries must be legalized by the Portuguese diplomatic or consular authority in the issuing country, or contain the Hague Apostille, except for United Kingdom, and countries from EU, European Economic Area, or European Free Trade Association. Any transcript not in English, French or Spanish, must be accompanied by a certified translation.

5. Application Submission

Applications to UCP (Porto) are submitted using an online application platform available HERE.

During the application process, applicants will be able to upload the above-mentioned documents.

After submission, a confirmation message will be sent to the applicant's email address, including information regarding payment of the application fee (ATM references, or UCP IBAN for an international bank transfer for applicants living abroad).

Applications omitting the required documents or lacking payment of the application fee will not be considered.

6. Applications assessment, ranking criteria, and publication of the results

The selection and ranking of the applicants will be carried out by the master's Coordinator and the Dean of the School of Arts – Universidade Católica Portuguesa.

The criteria considered is:

Criteria	Weight
Bachelor's degree final grade	50%
Professional/Artistic Curriculum	30%
Scientific Curriculum (research and production in the Master's field)	20%

An interview may additionally be carried out, with the aim of clarifying complementary elements to the curricular evaluation. When scheduled, failure to attend the interview determines the elimination of the candidate.

The results will be published on a digital platform with access restricted to candidates, who will receive the credentials and access link by email on a date close to results publication. Each applicant will be informed of the result of the application as follows:

- “Admitted” - if the candidate is admitted without any condition;
- “Admitted Conditionally” - if admission is dependent on the conclusion of the undergraduate degree with a minimum final grade (GPA) and/or presentation of other documents on a set date
- “Next Round” (Application will be assessed in the following call on equal terms with new applicants)
- “Not Admitted”

Applicants sent to the next round, will be automatically considered, without the need to submit a new application and without additional costs. However, applicants may send new documents and/or information relevant for the process if there is any change in their previous situation.

The applications assessment will be carried out on an equal basis with new applicants.

7. Functioning of the Master Programme

The Master in Sound and Image consists of a cycle of studies, totalling 120 credit units (ECTS), which include:

- 1st year - a curricular component (2 semesters);
- 2nd year - research seminars and the Master's Final Project (with the possibility of choosing between Dissertation, Project or Internship).

Classes are scheduled to start on September 19th and will take place and will take place, predictably, from Monday to Friday, between 6h00 pm and 10h00 pm.

The Master may be taught in English if foreign students are admitted.
